

Professional Speaker's Sheet

Nancy Marshall

Marshall Communications
Founder & CEO, and
The PR Maven®

Gumption.

Nancy Marshall, the PR Maven® and CEO of Marshall Communications, has it. Connecticut-born, and a Mainer for more than four decades—she's a Yankee powerhouse of city-girl grit, staunch country values, and go-getter vigor and enthusiastic story teller.

The lady's got gumption—and a grin.

With her infectious laugh, bone-deep curiosity, hunger for people's stories—and that grin—Nancy exudes vitality and makes friends wherever she goes. Whether listening intently to a client, pitching a story, cycling to the Canadian border, enthusiastically networking, or growing Marshall Communications, she activates copious amounts of energy, fun, and joy—in herself and in others.

That's what makes Nancy—inveterate idea-maker and passionate people connector—so valuable to her clients and so engaging as a speaker. "I have passion, enthusiasm, love, and energy in my heart and soul," she remarks, "and a lot of notions in my head. I have a hunger for great things to see and do, places to go, and people to meet. Most everyone I encounter senses that."

She loves helping people; and people love Nancy.

Now she likes to imagine that she is the conductor on her clients' train to success—gifting them with that same sense of wonder and opportunity.

Her energy powers a speeding train of ideas.

"We're a one-stop-shop for action," is a favorite Nancy refrain. "When I know a problem, I connect the dots immediately. I think: This is what we need to do, this is the staff we need, these are the resources to fold together to get underway fast and make it work. It's all about urgency—and I'm the conductor."

As their conductor, she does the tough things her clients don't know how to do, pulls out the big stories they are too humble to talk about, and sells the heck out of them with an authenticity and charm that feels just right.
