

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
[INSERT RELEASE DATE HERE]

Contact: Jennifer Boes, Nancy Marshall Communications
jboes@marshallpr.com, 207.623.4177, cell 302.245.6644

INVITATION TO COVER Fryeburg Academy to Announce Sizable Bequest at Memorial Service

WHAT: A former Fryeburg Academy scholarship student and Maine resident bequested 50 percent of his sizable estate to the Maine town academy. The amount and details of the bequest will be announced this Friday.

The Academy will honor the donor at a memorial service. A short documentary film on the donor's life and his connection to the school will be shown and specific details on the bequest and how it will be used to transform Fryeburg Academy will be presented.

WHO: Fryeburg Academy Headmaster Dan Lee and members of the donor's family along with approximately 200 guests including Academy faculty members, board of trustees, and students.

WHEN: Friday, October 15
2:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

WHERE: The Leura Hill Eastman Performing Arts Center
Fryeburg Academy
18 Bradley Street
Fryeburg, Maine 04037
(207) 935-9232

ABOUT: Founded in 1792, Fryeburg Academy is one of the nation's longest-operating schools. This independent secondary school, one of the Maine's 10 town academies, provides educational excellence in a supportive environment to more than 500 day students from western Maine and eastern New Hampshire as well as 125 boarding students from 21 countries and six states.

###